... 2nd Party

The Government of Goa, Daman and Diu referred the dispute as to the termination of the workman Shri Manohar Ladu Bandodkar, hereinafter referred to as the workman, and, his employer M/s. Bandiwade Transport, Bandiwade,

Ponda, hereinafter referred to as the employer, for adjudication with the following schedule:

SCHEDULE

"Whether the action of the management of M/s. Bandiwade Transport, Bandiwade, Ponda, Goa, in terminating the services of Shri Manohar Ladu Bandodkar, conductor, with effect from 3-7-74 is legal and justified?"

If not, to what relief the concerned workman is entitled to?"

On behalf of the workman the following contentions were aised in the claim statement; the workman was removed from service on 3-7-74 and the employer took up the position that the workman was a temporary employee on Rs. 3/- per day as his wage and had been removed from service; that no domestic inquiry was held about any misconduct before terminating the service of the workman; therefore, the termination was invalid and illegal; and that therefore the workman be reinstated in service with full back wages and continuity of service.

The employer contended that the workman had been employed on a wage of Rs. 3/- per day and has been over-paid; he used to come drunk for duty; he had not rendered proper accounts and had not issued tickets to passengers after receiving money from them and had insulted the passengers by using abusive language, and that the workman was called on to explain his conduct and the employer found the explanation not satisfactory and removed him from service. The employer also stated that he was ready for an inquiry being held by the Tribunal.

No reply was filed on behalf of the workman.

The parties agreed to file affidavits of their respective witnesses and cross examine the opposite side witnesses. To-day when the case was called up, the workman and the employer reported that they had settled the dispute and filed a memo of settlement, whereby the workman gave up his challenge to the termination of service. As the parties were personally present while reporting the settlement and filing the memo, the memo is accepted and the following award is passed.

AWARD

In view of the settlement, which shall be annexed to and form part of this award, the termination of service is held to be justified and legal.

The Government of Goa, Daman and Diu referred the dispute between the workman Shri Keshav Tukaram Basankar and his employer for adjudication setting out the following schedule:

SCHEDULE

"Whether the action of the management of M/s Minito Cacora, Curchorem, Goa in terminating the services of Shri Keshav Tukaram Basankar with effect from 1-8-1977 is legal and justified?"

2. The workman by his claim statement contended that he was employed as a Mestry since the employer's factory was set up in 1973; that on 31-7-1977 the management issued a letter terminating the service of the workman for the reason that the factory had been running at a loss and had no sales and hence the termination was by way of retrenchment; that the provisions of section 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act had not been complied with as no notice or notice pay for one month and retrenchment compensation had been given; that on 16-8-1977 the workman addressed a notice to the employer asking for being reinstated with continuity of service and back wages; in reply the employer alleged that the workman had been responsible for the loss suffered by the factory; that this allegation was baseless; and therefore the workman be ordered to be reinstated with back wages and continuity of service.

3. The employer stated in his written statement that the workman was responsible for promotion of production but he disappointed the employer in all respects; the workman did not take any initiative in promoting production and as a result there was unsatisfactory production and consequent total loss to the employer; the workman fixed costly imported dies carelessly and as a result 40 dies were spoiled; that with the loss suffered thus and shortage of raw materials it was difficult to pay even the salaries to the workers; the ship that was loaded with raw materials was lost and there was no supply of raw material from Government for the last 4 years and hence there was no alternative except to terminate the service of the workman; that the workman was asked to call at the office for full and final settlement of his amount and his retrenchment compensation was also to be settled then but he never turned up; there was no prospect of reinstatement as the situation had shown no signs of improvement and hence reinstatement be not awarded in favour of the workman but only retrenchment compensation.

4. When the case came up for hearing, the legal position was explained to the employer and then the case was adjourned as the parties desired to have a talk between themselves. Then they filed a joint application requesting that an award be passed in terms of the settlement.

5. The parties were aided in their discussion by their respective labour consultants. The settlement is to the effect that the workman was to be paid Rs. 5000/- by a crossed D. D. or P. O. on 25-11-1978 and then Rs. 1500/- by the 25th of the next following four months and was to give up his claim for reinstatement with back wages.

6. The settlement is accepted by both sides who had the assistance of their labour consultants. The workman gets a substantial sum of money almost immediately and also another substantial sum of money in 4 monthly instalments. It is therefore accepted as being fair and proper. The following award is made.

AWARD

Award is made in terms of settlement dated 20-12-1978 which shall form part of and be annexed to this award.
